Weekly Gospel Reflection

Reflexión semanal del evangelio

Today's reading is the turning point in Mark's Gospel. In the presentation of the life and ministry of Jesus found in the Gospel of Mark, the deeds of Jesus have shown Jesus to be the Son of God. Yet many, including Jesus' disciples, have not yet realized his identity. In today's Gospel, Jesus asks the disciples for a field report by asking what others say about him. He then turns the question directly to the disciples and asks what they believe. Peter speaks for all of them when he announces that they believe Jesus to be the Christ.

The word Christ is the Greek translation of the Hebrew word for Messiah, which means "the anointed one." At the time of Jesus, the image of the Messiah was laden with popular expectations, most of which looked for a political leader who would free the Jewish people from Roman occupation. Jesus does not appear to have used this term for himself. As we see in today's reading, Jesus refers to himself instead as the Son of Man, a term derived from the Jewish Scriptures, found in the Book of Daniel and in other apocryphal writings. Many scholars suggest that the phrase Son of Man is best understood to mean "human being."

Now that the disciples have acknowledged Jesus as the Christ, Jesus confides in them the outcome of his ministry: he will be rejected, must suffer and die, and will rise after three days. Peter rejects this prediction, and Jesus rebukes him severely. The image of Christ that Jesus is giving is not the image of the Messiah that Peter was expecting. Jesus then teaches the crowd and the disciples about the path of discipleship: To be Christ's disciple is to follow in the way of the cross.

We can easily miss the fear that Jesus' words must have evoked in his disciples. Death by crucifixion was all too familiar as a method of execution in Roman-occupied territories. It was also an omnipresent danger to the Christian community for whom Mark wrote. The path that Jesus was inviting his disciples to share meant tremendous suffering and death. This is the kind of radical commitment and sacrifice that Jesus calls us to adopt for the sake of the Gospel.

La lectura de hoy es un punto de inflexión en el Evangelio de Marcos. En la presentación de la vida y el ministerio de Jesús que se encuentra en el Evangelio de Marcos, las obras de Jesús han demostrado que Jesús es el Hijo de Dios. Sin embargo, muchos, incluidos los discípulos de Jesús, aún no han comprendido su identidad. En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús pide a los discípulos un informe de campo preguntando qué dicen otros sobre él. Luego dirige la pregunta directamente a los discípulos y les pregunta qué creen. Pedro habla por todos ellos cuando anuncia que creen que Jesús es el Cristo.

La palabra Cristo es la traducción griega de la palabra hebrea para Mesías, que significa "el ungido". En la época de Jesús, la imagen del Mesías estaba cargada de expectativas populares, la mayoría de las cuales buscaban un líder político que liberara al pueblo judío de la ocupación romana. Jesús no parece haber usado este término para sí mismo. Como vemos en la lectura de hoy, Jesús se refiere a sí mismo como el Hijo del Hombre, un término derivado de las Escrituras judías, que se encuentra en el Libro de Daniel y en otros escritos apócrifos. Muchos estudiosos sugieren que la frase Hijo del Hombre se entiende mejor como "ser humano".

Ahora que los discípulos han reconocido a Jesús como el Cristo, Jesús les confía el resultado de su ministerio: será rechazado, deberá sufrir y morir, y resucitará después de tres días. Pedro rechaza esta predicción y Jesús lo reprende severamente. La imagen de Cristo que Jesús está dando no es la imagen del Mesías que Pedro esperaba. Jesús luego enseña a la multitud y a los discípulos sobre el camino del discipulado: Ser discípulo de Cristo es seguir el camino de la cruz.

Podemos pasar por alto fácilmente el miedo que las palabras de Jesús deben haber evocado en sus discípulos. La muerte por crucifixión era demasiado familiar como método de ejecución en los territorios ocupados por los romanos. También era un peligro omnipresente para la comunidad cristiana para la que escribió Marcos. El camino que Jesús invitaba a sus discípulos a seguir implicaba un tremendo sufrimiento y muerte. Este es el tipo de compromiso y sacrificio radical que Jesús nos llama a adoptar por el bien del Evangelio.

FAITH FORMATION

On Tuesday, September 24th, we will be beginning monthly Parish Faith Formation Nights held on the fourth Tuesday of each month. Along with parishioners of the Cathedral of St. Andrew all are invited to join Father Juan and Father Joseph in an evening of formation and prayer. After the 6 pm Mass there will be time for dinner and fellowship in the cafeteria, then studies in groups and concludes with a communal prayer. Individuals preparing for marriage, involved in the Parish Religious Education program, and liturgical ministers are required to attend. One of the main purposes for our coming together is to form a community as we grow in our faith together.

Después de la misa de las 6 pm habrá tiempo para cenar y convivir en la cafetería, luego se estudiará en grupos y se concluirá con una oración comunitaria.
