Weekly Gospel Reflection Reflexión semanal del evangelio

Today we continue to read from the Gospel of Mark. Recall that last week we heard Jesus chastise his disciples for their argument about who among them was the greatest. Jesus taught them that the greatest among them will be those who serve the least ones. In today's Gospel, the disciple John questions Jesus about an unknown exorcist who was driving out demons in Jesus' name. John's question might have been motivated by jealousy. Previously in Mark's Gospel, Jesus healed a boy whom the disciples had been unable to heal. John's question is further evidence that the disciples have not yet grasped Jesus' words to them. They continue to compare themselves to others who seem to have greater healing powers, and they do not want to share the power of Jesus' name with others.

Today the demon possession described in the Gospels might be seen as a form of mental illness, but the need for healing these syndromes was as real then as it is now. Exorcism was a common practice in first-century Palestine. Some people had the power to heal the symptoms of possession. One of the strategies used was to invoke the name of a person or figure who was believed to have the power to heal.

The disciples observed that the unknown exorcist invoked Jesus' name and was successful in his healing efforts. This unknown healer recognized the power of Jesus' name, yet he was not a follower of Jesus. In his reply to his disciples, Jesus acknowledges that deeds of faith can precede the words of faith. He also teaches that the disciples should not be reluctant to share Jesus' healing powers with others.

Later in this Gospel, Jesus teaches us not to create obstacles for those who are just beginning to have faith but to encourage even the smallest signs of faith. The Greek word used here for sin also connotes "stumbling" or "causing scandal." In vivid terms Jesus teaches his disciples the consequences to those who would put obstacles before people who are on the road to faith.

Hoy continuamos leyendo el Evangelio de Marcos. Recordemos que la semana pasada escuchamos a Jesús reprender a sus discípulos por su discusión sobre quién de ellos era el más grande. Jesús les enseñó que los más grandes entre ellos serán aquellos que sirvan a los más pequeños. En el Evangelio de hoy, el discípulo Juan le pregunta a Jesús acerca de un exorcista desconocido que estaba expulsando demonios en nombre de Jesús. La pregunta de Juan puede haber sido motivada por celos. Anteriormente en el Evangelio de Marcos, Jesús sanó a un muchacho a quien los discípulos no habían podido sanar. La pregunta de Juan es una evidencia más de que los discípulos aún no han comprendido las palabras que Jesús les dirigió. Siguen comparándose con otros que parecen tener mayores poderes de sanación y no quieren compartir el poder del nombre de Jesús con otros.

Hoy la posesión demoníaca descrita en los Evangelios puede verse como una forma de enfermedad mental, pero la necesidad de sanar estos síndromes era tan real entonces como lo es ahora. El exorcismo era una práctica común en la Palestina del primer siglo. Algunas personas tenían el poder de sanar los síntomas de la posesión. Una de las estrategias utilizadas fue invocar el nombre de una persona o figura que se creía que tenía el poder de curar.

Los discípulos observaron que el exorcista desconocido invocó el nombre de Jesús y tuvo éxito en sus esfuerzos de curación. Este sanador desconocido reconoció el poder del nombre de Jesús, pero no era un seguidor de Jesús. En su respuesta a sus discípulos, Jesús reconoce que las obras de fe pueden preceder a las palabras de fe. También enseña que los discípulos no deben ser reacios a compartir los poderes curativos de Jesús con los demás.

Más adelante en este Evangelio, Jesús nos enseña a no crear obstáculos para aquellos que recién comienzan a tener fe, sino alentar incluso las más pequeñas señales de fe. La palabra griega utilizada aquí para pecado también connota "tropezar" o "causar escándalo". En términos vívidos, Jesús enseña a sus discípulos las consecuencias para aquellos que ponen obstáculos ante las personas que están en el camino de la fe.

We strongly encourage you to sign up for online giving, regular automatic bank draft, or to use your weekly donation envelopes for all of your monetary contributions.

Muchas veces, las familias solicitarán una carta que indique que están registrados como miembros participantes de St. Edward para convertirse en padrinos, padrinos de confirmación o para inscribirse en escuelas católicas. Usar su sobre o donar en línea facilita nuestro trabajo y nos permite decir: ¡Sí! Esta familia está registrada y participa aquí en St. Edward.

Recordatorio: Escriba el número de su sobre en cualquier donación que no esté en el sobre de contribución preimpreso.

FEAST OF ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI - OCT. 4TH FIESTA DE SAN FRANCISCO DE ASÍS

Saint Francis of Assisi (1182 - 1226) is probably the most popular Christian saint. His radiant spirit is a beacon for those seeking a life of meaning and service. It does no good to put him on a pedestal; rather we should walk with St. Francis on the path of peace, openness, mysticism, poverty, reverence for nature, and love of animals. Our statue of St. Francis is in the vestibule.

San Francisco de Asís (1182 - 1226) es probablemente el santo cristiano más popular. Su espíritu radiante es un faro para quienes buscan una vida llena de significado y servicio. No sirve de nada ponerlo en un pedestal; más bien deberíamos caminar con San Francisco por el camino de la paz, la apertura, el misticismo, la pobreza, la reverencia por la naturaleza y el amor a los animales. Nuestra estatua de San Francisco está en el vestíbulo.
