Weekly Gospel Reflection

Reflexión semanal del evangelio

Today we continue to read from the Gospel according to Mark. For the past three Sundays, we have been hearing Mark's reports of conversations between Jesus and his disciples. Recall that in Mark's Gospel, Jesus uses these private moments to teach his disciples in greater detail about the Kingdom of God. Beginning with today's Gospel, Jesus returns to Judea, Jewish territory, and resumes his public ministry. The first verse of chapter 10 of Mark's Gospel tells us that crowds gathered around Jesus, and he taught them, as was his custom. Immediately, the Pharisees approach Jesus to test him.

The Pharisees question Jesus about the lawfulness of divorce. Under specific conditions, divorce was an accepted practice among the Jewish people during the time of Jesus. It was regulated by the Law of Moses, as found in Deuteronomy 24:1-5. This law only permits that a husband may divorce his wife if he finds her to be indecent. This is the justification that the Pharisees reference when Jesus inquires about the commandment of Moses. In reply, Jesus quotes from the Book of Genesis and counters that God's original intention was that men and women would become one flesh in marriage. Jesus describes the teaching of Moses as a concession made to God's original intention because of human stubbornness.

In private, Jesus' disciples question him further about this teaching on divorce. It is to his disciples that Jesus lays out the implications of his teaching by explaining that remarriage after divorce is adultery. Jesus' teaching was more restrictive than the teaching of the Pharisees, which permitted remarriage. Jesus further distinguished his teaching from the cultural norms of his time by applying his words equally to men and women. Jewish culture permitted only that a husband may divorce his wife. Wives were not permitted to divorce their husband for any reason, including adultery.

At first glance, the final part of today's Gospel seems unconnected to the previous teaching about divorce. When read together, however, these passages present a strong picture of Jesus' emphasis on the importance of family. God intended for women and men to be joined together in marriage. Among the purposes of marriage is the raising of children. By welcoming children and fostering their relationship with God, parents and families bear witness to the Kingdom of God.

Hoy continuamos leyendo el Evangelio según Marcos. Durante los últimos tres domingos, hemos estado escuchando los relatos de Marcos sobre las conversaciones entre Jesús y sus discípulos. Recordemos que en el Evangelio de Marcos, Jesús usa estos momentos privados para enseñar a sus discípulos con mayor detalle sobre el Reino de Dios. Comenzando con el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús regresa a Judea, territorio judío, y reanuda su ministerio público. El primer versículo del capítulo 10 del Evangelio de Marcos nos dice que las multitudes se reunieron alrededor de Jesús, y él les enseñó, como era su costumbre. Inmediatamente, los fariseos se acercan a Jesús para ponerlo a prueba.

Los fariseos cuestionan a Jesús sobre la licitud del divorcio. Bajo condiciones específicas, el divorcio era una práctica aceptada entre el pueblo judío durante el tiempo de Jesús. Estaba regulado por la Ley de Moisés, como se encuentra en Deuteronomio 24:1-5. Esta ley solo permite que un esposo pueda divorciarse de su esposa si la encuentra indecente. Esta es la justificación a la que hacen referencia los fariseos cuando Jesús pregunta sobre el mandamiento de Moisés. En respuesta, Jesús cita el libro del Génesis y contraataca diciendo que la intención original de Dios era que los hombres y las mujeres se convirtieran en una sola carne en el matrimonio. Jesús describe la enseñanza de Moisés como una concesión hecha a la intención original de Dios debido a la terquedad humana.

En privado, los discípulos de Jesús le preguntan más sobre esta enseñanza sobre el divorcio. Es a sus discípulos a quienes Jesús les explica las implicaciones de su enseñanza al explicar que casarse de nuevo después del divorcio es adulterio. La enseñanza de Jesús era más restrictiva que la enseñanza de los fariseos, que permitían el nuevo matrimonio. Jesús distinguió aún más su enseñanza de las normas culturales de su tiempo al aplicar sus palabras por igual a hombres y mujeres. La cultura judía solo permitía que un esposo se divorciara de su esposa. A las esposas no se les permitía divorciarse de su esposo por ninguna razón, incluido el adulterio.

A primera vista, la parte final del Evangelio de hoy parece no tener conexión con la enseñanza anterior sobre el divorcio. Sin embargo, cuando se leen juntos, estos pasajes presentan una imagen clara del énfasis de Jesús en la importancia de la familia. Dios quería que las mujeres y los hombres se unieran en matrimonio. Entre los fines del matrimonio está la educación de los hijos. Acogiendo a los hijos y fomentando su relación con Dios, los padres y las familias dan testimonio del Reino de Dios.

FEAST OF ST. EDWARD, THE CONFESSOR SUNDAY, OCTOBER 13TH FIESTA DE SAN EDUARDO EL CONFESOR

This English king was not the only saint in the family; his niece, who spent a great deal of her youth at his court, was St. Margaret of Scotland. Ascending the throne in 1044, Edward's reign was known as a largely peaceful one; he is remembered especially for his good rule and the repealing of particularly crushing taxes. Though caught up in the political intrigues that were inevitable in his position, he resolved them without armed conflict. Our statue of St. Edward is in the center of the retablo.

Este rey inglés no era el único santo de la familia; su sobrina, que pasó gran parte de su juventud en su corte, era Santa Margarita de Escocia. Eduardo ascendió al trono en 1044 y su reinado fue en gran parte pacífico; se le recuerda especialmente por su buen gobierno y por la derogación de impuestos particularmente agobiantes. Aunque se vio envuelto en intrigas políticas que eran inevitables en su posición, las resolvió sin conflictos armados. Nuestra estatua de San Eduardo está en el centro del retablo.
